Isaac Simpson, Sr.

Notes

Have listed under the name of Isaac, 2 females who are not named.
In the Washington County marriage records we find these 3 marriages lumped together:

Lucinda Simpson married Robert Brown, January 2, 1840 (Identified as daughter)
Mary Simpson married John Dunn, May 31, 1832
Sarah Simpson married John Brown, February 18, 1841

Since Lucinda Simpson is named as a daughter of Issac, it is possible that these other two are also the ones listed as female Simpsons. However, they could also just be cousins and relatives.

The Klinker genealogy gives two daughters and gives no names, but calls one the "mother of Aunt Kate Miller" and the other "the mother of Aunt Liz Miller". That Miller may be a maiden name or a married name. More checking is needed.

1840 Census of Jackson Twp., Washington County, IN Isaac Simpson...............#144

Possible brother Obediah as found in the 1840-1860 census as close in age to Isaac.

……

From the Ancestry World Tree information of Patricia Zimmer we are given names of the children as follows:

Addison Simpson (which we have)
Lucinda Simpson (which we have)
Malinda Simpson
Unknown Simpson
Elizabeth Simpson
Catherine Simpson which is carried on down as m. G. W. Moss
John Simpson (which we have)
William Simpson (which we have)

So need more matchups for these children. I have that Lucinda married Robert Brown and one more daughter married Bill Brown. More info needed.

Also most of the children were listed as being born in North Carolina, as well as the marriage taking place in North Carolina. So do not know just when they moved to Indiana.

One thing to note is that in the 1820 census in Washington Co., IN, we find
George Simpson #207
2 males under 10.............born 1810-1820
1 male 26 to 45..................born 1775 to 1794 ....prob. George
2 females under 10...........born 1810-1820
1 female 10 to 16..............born 1804-1810
1 female 26 to 45..............born 1775 to 1794.........prob. wife

Is he this Issac's brother?? Isaac was married in NC in 1816 and perhaps followed a brother to Indiana? Or a cousin?? All we know is that this George was in the same age bracket as Isaac and had settled in Washington Co., IN by 1820.

We find in the original land patents these for Isaac Simpson:

1. Isaac Simpson of the County of Floyd and the State of Indiana, dated December 17, 1821 purchase of 80 acres in Washington County, IN.......West 1/2 of the Northeast quarter, Section 12, Township 1-5, Range 3 East.

This would appear that this Isaac was living in Floyd at the time of his purchase of land in Washington Co.

2. Isaac Simpson of Washington County in the State of Indiana, dated August 1, 1839, purchase of 40 acres in Washington County, IN.........Northeast 1/4 of the Northeast quarter, Section 12, Township 1-5, Range 3 East.

In 1860 the Plat Map of Jackson Township, Washington Co., IN, shows that A. Simpson had 2 80 acres properties. Section 7, west half of the north west quarter and Section 8, west half of the north east quarter. The first in Section 7 he sold to Rudolph and Amanda Miller, his daughter and her husband. The second was still in the family name and was in Margaret Lucinda Simpson's ownership in 1878.

Why my notes call him Sr. I am not sure as he apparently did not have a son they called Isaac Simpson. Possibly there was. But by date this has to be Isaac Simpson, father of Addison, and our ancestor. Obediah had a son who had the name of Isaac and it wasn't unusual for the elder Isaac in an area to be called Sr. to distinguish between the two, even though they were not father and son.

In 1850 Isaac was dead so census is under Elizabeth's name.

1850 Census of Jackson Twp., Washington Co., IN (later may have been Howard Twp.)

Elizabeth Simpson	57	born N.C		1793
Elizabeth Simpson	23	born IN		1827
John Simpson	19	born IN	Farmer	1831
William Simpson	16	born IN		1834

Still has her 3 children at home.

Here is a rose for those who lied in peace, all but forgotten,

The log cabin of David Voyles as it was in August of 2009. The Voyles Reunion group took a tour of Voyles places and visited here. Would it have had a front porch in the day of David and Barbara? It might have. We see most of the log cabins in the Appalachian mountains with front porches. This cabin in located in Howard Township, Washington County, IN. While there you can visit the David Voyles Cemetery on the same property.

This is the first of the Voyles Newsletter and I hope with everyone's cooperation it will be the first of many to come. So if you have news that you want to share, please pass it on to me and I will add it. Current events will come first but historic info will be welcomed, too. My addresses are at the end. If I get enough news I will do one every month. If you don't have a computer, then phone me or drop me a line with your news.

The first news that I have for June is the death of one our family members, Betty Ward, who went to be with the Angels June 7, 2009. She was a friendly lady and we were always glad to see her smiling face at our reunions. She will be missed this year at our reunion.

Lafayette, Indiana Paper

Born Sept. 5, 1930, in White County, she was the daughter of the late Arvil Voyles and Ivadell Criswell Voyles(Gingrich). She was a 1948 graduate of Delphi High School.

On Oct. 10, 1953, she married John R. Ward at her parents' home south of Delphi. He survives.

Mrs. Ward worked as a teller and bookkeeper at the former Union Bank & Trust in Delphi, she and her husband bagged apples for Risko's orchard in Monticello, and she retired from the Carroll County Farm Bureau Insurance office in Delphi.

She was active at First Presbyterian Church, Delphi, where she was a lifelong member, elder, deacon, choir director for many years, financial secretary and member of the deacon's closet and United Presbyterian Women. She served on the board of the Carroll County Food Pantry.

Surviving with her husband are two sons, Brice E. Ward of Delphi and Randy J. Ward (wife: Cathy) of Brownsburg; a stepsister, Wilma Gingrich Perkins of Elizabethtown, Ky.; and a brother, John H. Gingrich V (wife: Linda) of Delphi.

Also surviving are 2 grandsons, Brandon Ward (wife: Ashley Hart Ward) and Matthew A. Ward. She was preceded in death by her stepfather, John H. Gingrich IV; and her brother, Freeman Voyles. She had a lovely voice and sang regularly at church. Betty's family was very important to her. She was a devoted wife, mother, grandmother, sister and aunt. She was a great cook, and had several recipes that many looked forward to at family reunions and get-togethers, most notably, Persimmon Pudding and Chicken & Noodles. Betty was an avid crossword puzzle worker, and picture puzzle builder, with her family always trying to find one that would challenge her. She also liked to cross-stitch, making many special heirlooms.

Visitation 4-8 p.m. Tuesday, June 9, 2009, at Davidson Funeral Home, Delphi. Services 10 a.m. Wednesday, June 10, 2009, at First Presbyterian Church, Delphi, Pastor Bill McLean officiating. Interment at Masonic Cemetery, Delphi. Memorial contributions may be made to First Presbyterian Church, Delphi.

Request for information: From William Lewis, My son and I are thinking of a trip to Ireland in the fall, September or October. I would like to have members share information with me about places to go that might relate to Voyles history in Ireland or Scotland. Also I would be interested in places to go in Ireland or Wales to find records or to locate possible ancestral ties with families still living there. Any thoughts would be appreciated.

Below is a story that was shared with me by Ryan Zink, he's a 4th great grandson of Thomas and Esther Headly/ Hadley. He wrote an article about his great grandfather, Lotus O. Zink.

In 1936, Lotus Oswald Zink and his family sold their farm in the Ray Community of Pawnee County, KS and moved to Larned. At the age of 46, Lote was now out of the business of farming, but he would soon find a way to keep working in the business he loved.

Lote took over Zink Produce from his eldest son Carl Edward Zink who started the company that same year, but decided to get out of the business. Zink Produce started in a small building at 408 Main Street in Larned. The poultry, cream, and egg business proved to be successful and Zink Produce did well. In fact, business increased at such a rate that Lote's other two sons, Clarence Lee and F. Lloyd Zink joined him as partners in the business. His sons drove trucks daily around to various farms in the area to collect the produce while some farmers made their own deliveries to the store. Lloyd's truck route alone ran 218 miles daily. Lotus loved the business because he was able to keep in touch with all his farm friends.

When World War II broke out, L. O. had to give up his three sons to the military so his wife Eithel tried to fill in as best as possible while the boys were away. Once the war was over, the boys returned home to work once again, picking up where they had left off Post-war prosperity found its way to Zink Produce. Lotus continued running the store while Clarence and Lloyd ran the farm routes. On weekends Eithel would come in and sit at the counter writing checks to the farmers bringing in their eggs and various other goods. With the growing success of Zink Produce, the little building at 408 Main Street began to close in and become awfully small. It was in 1948 that the family decided that it was time for a larger store.

On March 27, 1948, Lotus purchased 4 lots across the street at 401 Main Street from C. O. Mammal Food Stores Co. Inc. for an undisclosed amount. On April 1, Lotus was granted plumbing and building permits by the City of Larned to erect a new business building on the lots at a cost of $15,000.

In 1954, after 6 great years in the new building and 18 years in business, Lotus O. Zink retired at the age of 61 and Zink Produce closed their doors. Lotus worked a while longer as a bookkeeper before his permanent retirement. On December 22, 1975, L. O. Zink sold the Zink Produce building to G. L. With his health failing in the late 70's, Lote's son Lloyd and grandson Joe had him admitted into a rest home much to his protest. However, L.O. would have nothing to do with it and found his car keys and drove home, never to return to the rest home. On February 15, 1979, Lotus Oswald Zink passed away at the age of 85. L. O. left an indelible mark on the community through the years he spent running Zink Produce and had the luxury of enjoying a well-deserved retirement.

THE TOUR

Well folks……Our tour on Saturday of the cabin of David Voyles was great! It was thrilling to stand in the spot where our ancestor once stood. We had about 33 people go on the tour and I believe we all enjoyed it. The Cooks were so gracious for allowing us to come into their home. Becky Cook had refreshments for those who wanted them. A big Thank You to the Cooks.
The cabin was so well preserved because sometime in the past someone had covered it in weatherboarding.
David had carved his name on the outside wall on the porch. It now has a picture frame around it to help protect it .

THE 83RD VOYLES REUNION

Our reunion was well attended, over 100 people, food was delicious and I believe everyone had a good time. We had a lot of new and exciting things happening this year. We had some different prizes this year, circular saw blades with a picture of Organ Springs painted on them. The biggest one was the raffle prize and Don Voyles of Borden was the lucky winner of that. Other lucky winners were:
Oldest Person there: Pauline Hubler, Youngest: Isaac Gray (Anita Zink's grandson) and Theresa Ellis was the winner for the person who had come the greatest distance, all the way from Utah.

Theresa Ellis played her violin and everyone sure enjoyed that. Anyone who left early sure missed a great performance.

I didn't get a picture this year as everyone scattered after the meeting. Next year I would like for people to stay long enough to get a group picture like we did last year. In years to come I'm sure our descendants will be happy to see the picture.

THOSE WHO WILL BE MISSED

Margaret Adams, Jessie Dirks Roberts, Harriett Voyles Dirks, Nathan, Joseph, Rolin, William and Jacob Voyles.

May all our service men and woman be safe and return home soon to their loved ones.

Steve Edwards had glaucoma surgery at the University of Iowa Hospital and Clinics (UIHC) at Iowa City, IA. Aug. 11th.

Jack and Delores Voyles weren't well enough to come to the reunion this year as Delores has had back surgery.

Jeannie Noe Carlisle sent me this notice, however I don't have an obituary to put with it.
John Dooley died July 1, 2009 in Naples, Collier, Florida.

Roy and Deborah Small attended our reunion this year. Deborah is descended from William's brother John Voyles. We welcome them and hope they enjoyed our reunion. We hope to see them again next year.

At the reunion, Anita Zink, our secretary/treasurer, mentioned we wanted to do a family cookbook this coming year. We would love to have you send us your old family recipes and any recipes that you enjoy making for your family.

June Voyles wants to thank everyone who purchased her book, "William and Hannah Bundy Voyles, Son of Jacob Voyles and their Descendants". It's a very interesting book and has lots of information in it. If you are interested in genealogy and the Voyles family, then you need this book for your library. I'm sure proud of mine.

If you have news to share please pass it on to me so I can get it in the September newsletter.

I asked Rod Rutherford to write an article on his life as a missionary. Rod's line is: Jacob, William, Daniel, Priscilla, Mary Ann Smith, William Sheridan Bishop, Talma Bishop, Olive Marshall Rutherford, Rod Rutherford. He's my first cousin and I'm proud to be related to him. This was sent in 2 e-mails to me and I have left them as Rod wrote them. I hope you enjoy them as much as I did.

My Life as a Missionary
By Rod Rutherford

I was born in Livonia and grew up in Madison and Howard Townships. I graduated from Salem High School in 1958. I remember attending the Voyles Reunion at Organ Spring when I was a small child. My roots run deep in the churches of Christ on my mother's side of the family. I was baptized at the age of 14. I have fond memories of attending services at Kansas, Big Spring, Douglas and Ft. Hill that go back to my earliest recollections. I entered David Lipscomb College in Nashville, Tennessee in the fall of 1959. After my first year of college, my dad, Lester Rutherford, arranged with Douglas for me to preach my first sermon. Later that summer I preached several times at Kansas. Upon my graduation from college, my wife, Brenda and I, and our 18 month old daughter, Debra, went to Zambia in south central Africa to do missionary work. Several of the churches of Christ in Washington County helped support us in that work. We spent seven years in Africa. Our son, Kevin, was born there. Brenda has written a book about our experiences. It is simply called "Brenda's Diary." After two years back in the US, we went to the island of Tasmania, one of the states of Australia. We lived in that beautiful island for nearly eight years. We worked with two other families to establish a congregation in Hobart, the capital city. Our youngest son, Brett, married a girl from Tasmania who was a childhood friend. They now live in Devonport and are working to establish a congregation in that city. Since returning to live in the USA, Brenda and I have continued our interest in missionary work. For many years, we have made a month long missionary journey each year. The Lord has blessed us to work in 16 different nations. We have had great and varied experiences, some dangerous, many humorous. I hope to put them in a book one day. We are now semi retired. We live in Powell, TN. I preach regularly for the church of Christ in Gatlinburg and also teach part-time at a small preacher training school. Brenda runs a small business publishing books our family members have written.

My family and I were privileged to serve as missionaries overseas. We spent seven years in the African nation of Zambia and nearly eight years in Tasmania, the island state of Australia on the opposite side of the world. Joyce has asked me to write about them so I will tell a little about each.

In 1966, Brenda and I and our 18 month old daughter arrived in Lusaka, Zambia. We knew little about Africa and had no idea what we were getting in to. Our opinions of the "Dark Continent" had been formed from Tarzan movies and that was far from reality. Zambia is the size of Texas. It has eleven million people who are divided into 72 tribes. Each tribe has its own language and customs.

We began work in the capital city of Lusaka and set to work learning Chinyanja, the language of the area. Two years later, we were somewhat fluent in it when an opportunity came to move 200 miles north to the Copperbelt. The language there was Chibemba so we had to start all over again and learn a new language. We found the African people were very poor by American standards, but were a happy people and very interested in the Gospel. We helped establish churches of Christ in various parts of the nation, taught in a Bible college, and edited a monthly Gospel magazine. Brenda has written a book, "Brenda's Diary," in which she tells about the good times and the bad. We would not trade the African experience for any other.

In 1975, we went back into the mission field. This time we took our three children to Tasmania, an island about the size of West Virginia, which is south of the Australian mainland. It is one of Australia's states. Made famous by the Tasmanian devil (yes, there is such a creature), Tasmania is called "the apple isle" both because of its shape and because it is a major apple producing area. It is the most beautiful place we have ever been. With a moderate year round temperature, a mountainous interior, and some of the last pure wilderness in the world, it was a delight to live there. Our home was in the capital city of Hobart. It reminded us much of San Francisco in appearance. We worked with two other families to establish the Eastern Shore Church of Christ in that city. Our youngest son grew up there.

After finishing his education in the US, he went back, married his childhood sweetheart and is now a preacher of the Gospel living in Devonport, Tasmania. Because of this, we blest to be able to return every two or three years to visit. We now have three beautiful Australian grandchildren and so a new branch of our family will continue to live in that faraway land.

Brenda and I have made annual mission trips of about a month's duration to 16 different nations. We are blessed with Christian friends around the world. Our lives have been immeasurably enriched by these people.

Dear Family and Friends,

Today is the big day, today is the day that my rehab dream comes true totally! Over ten years ago I had a dream/vision that someone day I would ride across America with Aaron on a bicycle and watch him as he shakes hands with the President of the United States. Today is that day!

I got up early today and started preparing for today's meeting, sorting out the shirts we are giving as a gift, an XL OPOA golf shirt (white in color) for President Clinton, a medium "Life Across America" cycling jersey for Chelsea (his daughter), an OPOA grey workout shirt for Hillary and whatever else the FOP drums up for us at the NW gate.

We have our meeting scheduled for 10:03 a.m. and we have to be at the gate by 9:30 a.m. to meet Krista, (the special assistant to the President), who will escort us in to the radio show WTOP 1500 am. When we are done we will then pack us and head westbound to Bowling Green, Kentucky and to Nashville, Tenn. on Monday.

Well today at approx. 9 a.m., Ken (Gail's nephew) met us in front of the Hyatt Regency and went with us up to the NW gate of the White House in a cab (station wagon) so we could fit all eight of us in it.

We then met Sgt. Tom of the Uniformed Secret Service at the NW gate and he gave me a Fraternal Order of Police shirt to give to the President and a membership card as an honorary member of the Grand Lodge of FOP to give to him. (I stopped and took a picture with him and the card and the shirt.)

The secret service men on the gate allowed Gail, the children and Ken to enter the grounds with us and go on into the West Wing with us, to wait on Aaron and me. We were there about 9:30 a.m. then we met up with Krista and she explained what we were going to do, that the President would be doing a 4-6 minute radio broadcast, and we would be sitting in the Oval Office with him and watching him do this.

Afterwards, we would be each ushered up to him in front of the desk and the White House photographer would take a picture of us with him. Then we would be able to present any gifts and talk with him and shake his hand. They told Gail and the children they would have to wait in the press room while we were in the Oval Office, that way they would be able to hear the President's broadcast and then meet up with us when we came out.

They continued to usher people into the Oval Office and Krista came back to talk to us and check on us occasionally, she asked me if it was hard for me to stand for a long period of time and I said "yes", so she then made arrangements for Aaron and I to sit on the Presidential couch, by saving us a space when we came in.

Aaron and I were the last ones to come in and Krista had to "guide us" through the 40+ people who were already in the Oval Office standing around the Presidential Seal oval rug on the floor. We were seated on the couch located at the right front of the room, facing the left front corner of the President's desk. There were TV cameras in the middle of the room, surrounded by people standing and sitting. There was a lady who was the White House photographer who was crawling around on the rug in front of us, taking pictures of the President while he was making his broadcast.

He spoke for about 4-5 minutes on the prevention of pesticides in our Children's food and how we must always take care to always have a safe food supply in the United States and how we must always take care to provide good food for our children.

After his broadcast he stood up and then moved to the front of the desk and started receiving families to greet them and listen to what they had to say and then pose for a picture with them.
While we were waiting our turn, Krista tapped me on the shoulder and asked if I would like to have my family with me for the picture... I said "yes" and she said to continue to wait and let others go ahead of us and she would go get the family from the press room.

A few minutes later she returned with Gail, Katrina, Amy, Adella, Amber, Ken and then we all (with Aaron) walked up to the President and "I hung back to let Aaron go first, so that I could watch him shake hands with President Clinton, just like in my dream", after that happened I walked up and presented President Clinton a copy of the LAA map and a membership card of the Grand Lodge of the Fraternal Order of Police with his name inscribed on it.

I then said to him, "On behalf of all the police officers in the United States and the member of the Fraternal Order of Police, and the blood donors and blood centers across the U.S. who have supported us we would like to present you with this card and an honorary membership in the Fraternal Order of Police, and I would like to thank you for allowing my dream of watching Aaron shake hands with the President come true... thank you for that very much sir!"

President Clinton looked down at the membership card, then looked at the "Life Across America" map and biography, after a second or two came a moment of recognition and then he looked me right in the eye, as he shook my hand and said, "I really admire what you are doing for the American people... keep up the good work!"

After that, we all crowded around the President and he was in fact instrumental in asking each one of the children their names and shaking hands with each of them, and then he directed Adella and Amber to stand in front of him for the White House photograph, even putting his left hand on Amber's left shoulder to keep her in place, since she wanted to move over to Adella's spot.

The shirts and jerseys were left in the outer office per the request of his personal secretary who told us that because they was so little room and it was so crowded it would be better to leave them out there so we did.

Then Krista led us back to the outer office and we wrote on another LAA map what each shirt was for and Krista promised to talk to President Clinton and tell him who the gifts were for and why.
Krista also promised to send each of us an autographed copy of the pictures and said it would probably be about a month before we got our copy. (And thankfully, she did!)

Krista really went out of her way to help us while we were there. She seemed genuinely concerned about police officers and our nation-wide blood drive, "Life Across America", and she thought it was great to have Aaron (my 13 year old son) come with me on the ride. She said that President Clinton loves kids and really goes out of his way to make them feel at home in the White House.
On the way out of the west wing we ran into Scott the AP photographer who took all of our photos at the finish at the Capitol and ARC blood drive. We stopped and took some more photos and then we grabbed a cab and went back to the Hyatt and walked across the street for breakfast at the Holiday Inn.
(Gail's version of what happened while she and the children were left in the waiting room away from us)
We were taken to the press secretary's office, who is Michael McCurry, and there Krista made us feel really comfortable and she turned on the TV, she was very worried about the paint fumes in the room because they were painting the window outside.
Then she asked us if we wanted something to drink, which Amber promptly said "yes", and I said "water would be fine" and Amber said ... "NO, I want a soda". Krista said they had Sprite or Coke, so Amber said "orange", she brought us orange slice and regular slice, served on a tray with glasses and ice. Ken had brought in donuts with him so we dined in the White House on orange slice and donuts and ice!
Then we listened to President Clinton's radio broadcast of about 5 minutes and then she came back and said "Your family needs to be with Larry during this time" and then she walked to the Oval office, explaining things to the Secret Service as she went along because we didn't have any name tags on .
Then we waited outside the Oval Office for about five minutes because the room was too full. Then they let us in and we were reunited with Larry and Aaron for the picture.

LARRY'S STORY

A native of the Hoosier State, Larry is alive today because of the kindness of more than 100 strangers. Educated in Indiana and Northern California, he enlisted in the Marine Corps and was shipped overseas to Viet Nam. His enlistment was completed in Okinawa as a liaison noncommissioned officer between USMC and USAF. He received the Viet Nam Campaign Ribbon and Good Conduct Medal prior to being honorably discharged.

Larry completed his general education for an A.A. Degree at Contra Costa Junior College and in the fall of 1971, he enrolled in the Oakland Police Academy. As a "Rookie" he was awarded the Department's Medal of Merit for attempting to save the life of a drowning victim. In the next 12 years, he distinguished himself as a member of the S.W.A.T. Team, Solo Motorcycles, Hit & Run- Follow-up Accident Investigator, Field Training Officer, Background Investigator, Police Olympics Departmental Coordinator, and a Board member of the Oakland Police Officers Association. For this service he was awarded the Association's Distinguished Service Award.

Following his surgeries, extensive rehabilitation, and physical therapy, he came to Sonoma State University in spring of 1985 as a part of the vocational rehabilitation program offered through his employer. He chose to focus his studies on Management with a special emphasis in Marketing and received his B.A. in 1988. While working with non-profits such as Easter Seals and the California Blood Centers he became an ardent blood awareness advocate and his mission in life became evident as he began to touch and inspire people with his message of courage, hope and personal triumph. He credits his success at Sonoma State University to his belief in Jesus Christ and many inspirational professors, foreign exchange students and staff he encountered daily.

While on duty, August 21, 1982, Larry was permanently disabled by a traffic accident. A DUI driver, speeding at 65 MPH, struck him as he was speaking to a stopped motorist. The outcome was a need for 110 units of blood and nine major surgeries to repair extensive injuries, plus mandatory retirement. He refused to let personal tragedy keep him down after his near-fatal traffic accident.

Especially Jan Parks in the Disability Resource Center and George Johnson, of the Business Administration Department. Of them he says, "these two individuals touched and inspired me through their selfless help and constant encouragement".

December 1992, October 1993, and August 1994 brought three annual "Miracle Rides", one day 75 mile bike trips in Sonoma County which thanked his donors and raised more than $5000 annually for the local Easter Seal Society of the Redwood Coast. June 1995 brought the "Ability Across California", a 1000 mile bike trek in 10 days to unite communities on behalf of those in need of emergency blood supplies and dedicated to the police officers who died in the line of duty.(The program resulted in a 15-20% increase in donations to participating California Blood Centers). June 1996 saw the advent of "Life Across America", a nationwide blood drive with Larry and his son riding 4,266 miles for the cause. The ride culminated in Washington D.C. in the Oval Office at the White House, with 191 blood drives gathering 75,000 units, resulting in the American Association of Blood Banks awarding him the The President's Award.

June 1997 brought another nation-wide blood drive "Five Points of Life" with Larry riding 2800 miles with the twelve LifeSouth team members which finished in Gainesville, Florida, resulting in raising another 6,340 units of blood/apheresis donations and more than 7,557 bone marrow/organ donor registrants. February 1998 brought the first perpetual "Larry Frederick Award" awarded by America's Blood Centers recognizing an individual for his/her contribution to the independent volunteer blood community. October 1998 brought the "Distinguished Alumni Award" from Sonoma State University, it is the highest honor awarded to their alumni. It is designed to recognize individuals for outstanding achievement and contribution both to the community and to society at large. Larry also served on the Blood Bank of the Redwoods Board of Directors in Santa Rosa CA from 1998 to 2003. At the invitation of America's Blood Centers, from 1998 – 2008, Larry has been the presenter of the "Larry Frederick Award", given to a worthy recipient(s) at ABC's Annual Awards Dinner.

He was recently employed with NWC Insurance, Inc., and is an active member in the LDS church serving in Santa Rosa, California. He continues to lecture as a compelling and inspiring speaker on the behalf of blood awareness for individual blood centers of America's Blood Centers.

Let's all honor our law enforcement officers! I have a grand-son-in-law who is a police officer and a grandson who is an MP in the Marines, he's a "dog handler" in the K9 Unit. He is currently stationed in Okinawa, Japan.

News from Arlene and Don Voyles:

We made it to our winter home in Englewood, Florida on Friday, October 23rd. On our way down from Indiana we stopped at the Smokies for a couple of days. The weather was beautiful, but the leaves were just starting to change. We went to the Cades Cove area and drove the 11 mile loop in the valley. Got to see several deer, wild turkeys and 2 small black bears. Cades Cove is a magnificent place to see while in the Smokies. Lots of old homeplaces with the log cabins. Very peaceful and relaxing. Make sure you take some food and drinks with you if you decide to check it out. We have been going to the Smokies almost every year since we went there on our honeymoon in 1966. Still trying to get settled in here in Florida. The weather has been in the upper 80's and with high humidity. It should cool off by next week with lower humidity. Good to be back in the “Sunshine State and see all our friends here in our 55 and over community. The weeks fly by quickly just like they do in Indiana. We plan to go back in a couple weeks before Christmas so I can get all my Santas out and decorate the tree with with the help of our 4 grandchildren I'm sure there will be lots of cookie baking. If we should have snow, the plan is to have a snowball fight with the entire family. We Plan to leave the day after Christmas for Florida. My twin sister and her husband will be here the week after Christmas and celebrate New Year's Day with us. Hoping everyone has a wonderful blessed Christmas and a Happy New Year.

From Anita, June and I:

HIGH ON A WING

BY DALE LASHBROOKS
SALEM, IN

I want you to go back in time, and bring this picture up in your mind.

Now, close your eyes, can't you just see, The Apache, The Sioux,
The Navajos, running their ponies across the plains.

Don't you think we experience about the same thing, when we're in the saddle, riding
"High on our Wings."

When you're riding the mountains and there are curves up ahead, you start braking and shifting down.
You lay the wing over, as you start going around.

You make it track steady,
and keep your head straight.
You look through the curve,
it's almost complete.

You bring the wing up, the throttle comes on, the tach starts to climb, the engine sounds like a high pitched song.

Oh! to the mind and body, the sensation it brings, say friend, have you ever been
"High on a wing?"

When you crest a mountain, somewhere out west, and you and your bike are doing better than best.

And when you look down in the valley below, and see all the riders strung out in a row.
You ask yourself, "What do I see?" Then you realize,
"Hey, I see me!"

Ah the feeling to the soul it brings, when you're out in creation. "Riding high on your wing." So may God keep us safe, when we're doing our thing.
And really friend, you should try.
"Getting high on a wing!"

And somewhere up there, God has a place, where there is no time it seems, and there are all of our loved ones,
"Riding high on their wings!"

Psalm 139:7-10
7. "whither shall I go from thy Spirit? Or whither shall I flee from Thy presence?
8. "If I ascend up into Heaven,
Thou art there: If I make my bed
in hell, behold, Thou art there.
9. "If I take the wings of the morning, and dwell in the utter most parts of the sea:
10. Even there shall Thy hand lead me, and Thy right hand shall hold me."

IN MEMORY OF ALL THE BIKERS THAT HAVE RODE ON.

If you have news you would like to share, please send them to me and I will get them in the April Voyles Newsletter. Since I don't have any news this month, I thought I would honor an ancestor of many of you.

Linzy David and Clarissa Bishop Voyles.

From May 28, 1913 Salem, Washington County, Indiana newspaper.
Married 64 years Mr and Mrs, Linzy Voyles

Nations rise and fall, generations come and go. Mr and Mrs Linzy Voyles have traveled together 64 years. On the banks of Big Blue River, ten miles south of Salem, in Howard Township. Mr. Voyles was born 1-16-1822 and Mrs. Voyles who was Clarissa Bishop, was born 8 years later, 2-2-1830. They were united in marriage 11-25-1849 .

An interesting story of their marriage is told by them. It seems like the time selected by them was an unusually good night for matrimony. Mr Voyles had neglected to engage anyone, to perform the ceremony, thinking that would be an easy matter. But he found it far from that. The first one he called on was Squire Mitchell and he was informed that he was engaged to officiate at the wedding of Peter Colglazier. He next went to a minister by the name of Tommy Green and he too was engaged to marry a couple. He went for the third party and he was engaged. Mr. Voyles was determined not to be outdone, so at a late hour he called on Squire Mitchell and found he had retired for his night's repose. He explained the circumstances to Mr. Mitchell and that all arrangements were made and he wanted the ceremony pronounced that night. Mr. Mitchell seemed pleased with the young man's remarks and told him if he could find his horse he would go. The horse was soon found and near midnight they arrived at the bride's home, and in the dim light of an oil light, they were pronounced man and wife.

They still have the lamp that furnished the light on that memorable occasion. It is 3 inches square and 2 inches deep with a lid that opens and closes like a teakettle. There is also a spout similar to a teakettle. A hook was attached to the lamp so it could be hooked to a wooden peg in the wall. Lard oil and tallow was used, kerosene was unheard of at that time. This sort of lamp was the only kind used by them for many years after their marriage. Mrs. Voyles remarked that she" had spun, wove, knit and sewed by this light while Mr. Voyles had hammered away making and mending shoes during the winter months.

They have reared to manhood and womanhood a family of 14 children. For many years Mrs. Voyles spun and wove the cloth, cut and made the suits and garments for the entire family. She even made the thread that she sewed the garments with from flax.

It was the fifth of April the following spring when they went to housekeeping where they live now. At that time it was a log house with a stick chimney and puncheon floor. The house was built by Mr. Voyles, probably 70 years ago and before the New Albany and Vincennes Turnpike was constructed, . Mrs. Voyles said when they went to housekeeping the following furniture was all they had: three chairs, one pot, one frying pan and an oven. They had no table or bed, so a bed was made by boring holes in the wall and putting in sticks, then a post was placed under the outer end of the poles and poles laid on them, over which the bedclothes were spread, and a very comfortable bed was the result. Spoons and forks were made of wood and North Carolina gourds were used for water vessels. Thus a home was set up and if you would visit there today you would find an angelic mother, grand and great grandmother, a faithful husband, grand and great grandfather.

Mr. And Mrs. Voyles have lived in the neighborhood where they now live all their lives. Mr. Voyles was Mrs. Voyles first beaux and they have been sweethearts ever since. They have 9 living children, forty grandchildren and forty two great grandchildren.

Mr. Voyles informed the writer that he wore a tow gown until he was 12 years old and not being much on fashions still clings to old style clothes and you will notice in the picture is still wearing " barn- door" pants. He was never more then 3 miles from home until he was over 15 years of age. At the age of 16 he made his first trip to Salem and on a very unpleasant mission. He came with his father and had 2 teeth extracted. Dr. Newland, then one of the leading physicians of this place doing the work for him.

Mrs. Voyles wore home spun dresses nearly all her life. The first calico dress she had was purchased of Charlie Green who conducted a store at Halo. It cost 18 cents a yard and she paid for it by exchanging tow cloth she had made. Samuel Green now lives where the store was.

Great changes have taken place since Mr. Voyles was a young man. The wheat was cut with a sickle and threshed out with a flail and by the way Mr. Voyles has one of the old flails he used years ago. The ground hog thresher finally came into use and Mr. Voyles run one for four years. He also run a distillery for the same length of time.

His ancestors on one side were Dutch and Irish and on the other Welsh and Italian. The original Voyles came to this county from Wales and his father immigrated to Indiana from North Carolina and Mrs. Voyles parents came from South Carolina.(Wrong)

The first school house of his remembrance was built on the Levi Elliott farm and was a log building 16x16 with a fireplace in one side. On one side of the room a log was cut out and the space covered with greased paper to furnish light. A poplar log was cut into and was supported by pegs driven in the wall, this was the writing desk. Seats were made from split timbers. One of the games played at school those days was " long tail cat." The present generation will no doubt wonder how the game was played.

The place called Halo was named from the manner in which Mr. Voyles would call when he would ride up to a house. It is customary to say hello, but he would yell "halo." Hence the name of a former post office of this county,

Mrs. Voyles has used tobacco since she was 14 years of age. When the writer and Earl Colglazier visited then a few days ago, she was using " long green" and Earl gave her some " honest twist" but she preferred the old kind. Mr. Voyles was out on the farm where his grandson was sowing oats. During Mr. Voyles sojourn of 92 years here he has rode a train twice, once during the civil war, when he went to Louisville, and the second time when A.P. Willard was governor of Indiana, he was called to Indianapolis on a trial. Mrs. Voyles has never seen the inside of a train.

We stated before that Mr. V. Made his first trip to Salem when he was 16 years of age. He came on horseback, At the age of 91 he came in the same manner, it being 75 years from the ______first trip. He is preparing for another ride and is overhauling his saddle and putting on a new sheepskin seat.

As we view the lives of these aged people, a volume could be written that would be interesting to the present and future generations.

Thanks to Steve Edwards for the following news.

I don't know if you have ever seen this attached picture. My brother, John Michael "Mike" Edwards is standing in-between two of the wealthiest men in the world: Bill Gates and Warren Buffett. My brother likes playing in bridge tournaments (he has done so for nearly 50 years). Gates and Buffett also play bridge. Mike has met Gates before at bridge tournaments. When he went to Omaha to play in 2006, he knew both Gates and Buffett would be there. He bought a disposable camera and took it with him.

Both men were glad to have this picture taken. However, the person who took the picture didn't know how to work the camera and the flash did not go off. After Mike got home, I showed him that the flash really worked!
Note Buffett's hand is on Mike's shoulder. It's too bad some of his great wealth didn't rub off on him.
Both men have a combined estimated fortune of $100 billion.
That's $100,000,000,000.
Steve.

These letters were written and received in 1934 by Steve Edwards Mother, Ruth Elizabeth Voyles. Can you imagine writing letters, mailing and waiting weeks for an answer? Today we have e-mail and almost instant answers. How the world and genealogy has changed! Notice how many people attended the reunions back in the thirties. Times have also changed.

Thanks again Steve.
I have more I will share next month.

Miss Ruth Voyles -
Fair Field - Ia.

Dear Ruth - Quite a long time ago I promised my sister - Mrs Cass [illegible] - to answer a letter to you from Bonnie McKay - I mislaid her letter - and you know how it goes! However, on the last Sunday in August - all the Voyles clan - or many of them - meet near Fredericksburg, Ind. Road 150 - in an annual homecoming - on the Daniel Voils place - one of the early pioneers - there is an old mill - log cabin - and the crowd numbers as many as 500 some years. All eat at one long table - and there is a program. I have a history of the coming to Indiana in 1813 - of the eight brothers & 2 sisters - or part of them, that year - I will send you a copy - It would be fine if you could be at the meeting -

3/ Ned Ennis of E. Orange – N.J. is the Grandmother and comes every year – same [illegible]
Missouri. He is the son of Jane Voyles Ennis – who just died at 90 – she last of Moses Voyles family –
There are many Voyles families in N. C. some I so visit [illegible] kin – and several of them ~~[illegible]~~ live of them have the handsomest homes in the Falls Cities – as a family they are honest – industrious – [illegible] – and interesting –

4/ I am a widow – live alone in part of my nice bungalow – my son has the [illegible] in Indianapolis.
I wonder if Bonnie remembers me or my son
– David Ellis – we were in the same church –
Tell her a friend of mine
lives in her old home on Ewin Ave. It would be nice if you could attend the Reunion –
and meet your double
my little grand – [illegible]
[illegible] Voyles said she wanted to meet you –
Sorry to have rattled so long –

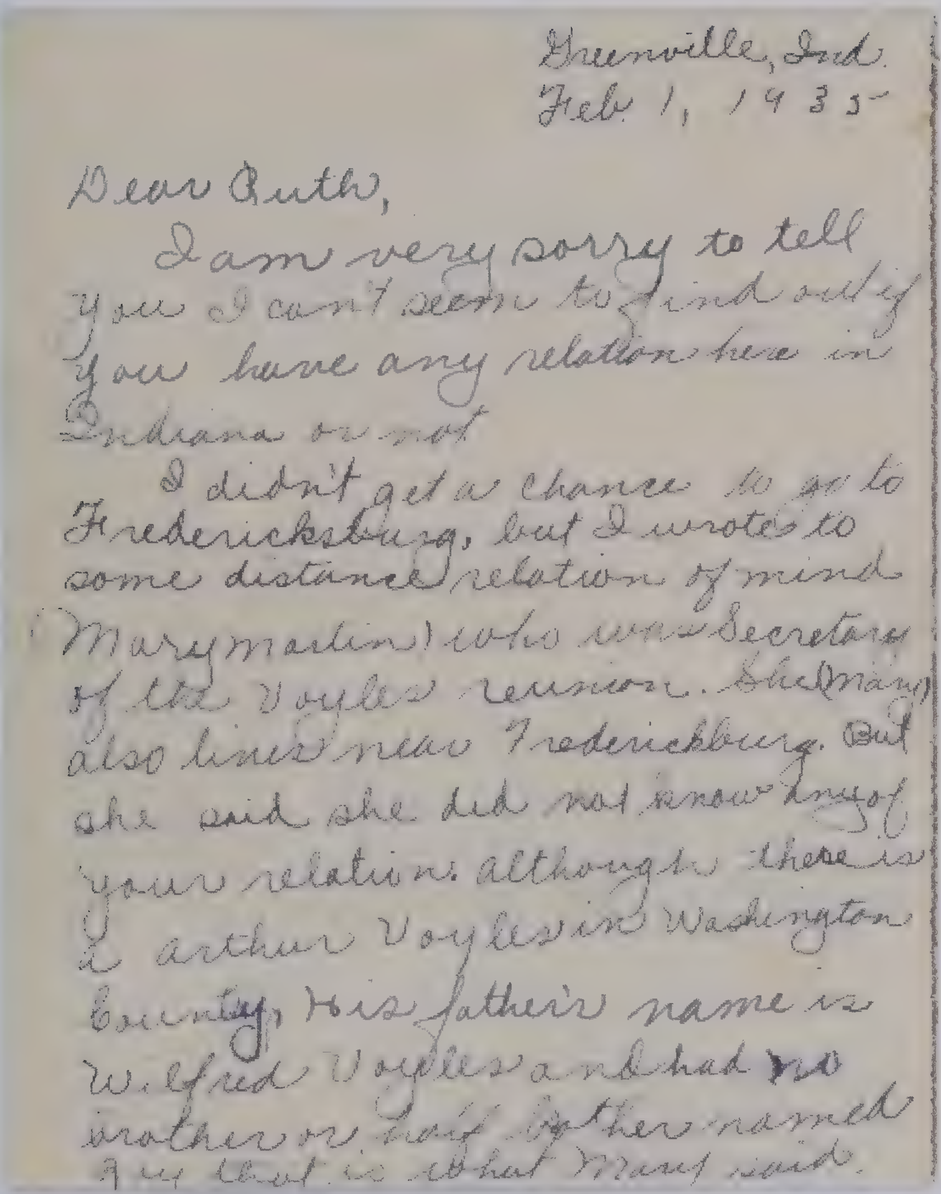
Last Month I included letters from Steve that were written in 1934, following is the letter written in 1935.



Greenville, Ind.
Feb. 1, 1935

Dear Ruth,

I am very sorry to tell you I can't seem to find out if you have any relation here in Indiana or not

I didn't get a chance to go to Fredericksburg, but I wrote to some distance relation of mind (Mary Martin) who was Secretary of the Voyles reunion. She (Mary) also lives near Fredericksburg. But she said she did not know any of your relations although there is a Arthur Voyles in Washington County, His father's name is Wilfred Voyles and had no brother or half brother named Guy that is what Mary said.

She said that she was going to write you a letter I dont know if she did or not Please Excuse me for not writing sooner but Xmas is alway a busy time for Mother Daddy and I.

We raise turkeys and sell them. Mother ~~sold~~ dressed 26 the Sunday before Xmas we had to deliver them the day before Xmas.

I am sending you a picture of my self it was taken 3 years ago. Of course I have changed a good deal since then but I look something like that picture.

If I ever find any of your relation I will let you know. Your friend

Irma [illegible]

Remember those in the Military who are keeping us free! I have another grandson, Wyatt Marshall Royer going into service, the Navy in December. Last year, we had a great attendance and appreciate everyone's interest and are hoping for an even greater number this year. Let's see whose line can have the most members present. Gather the family together and come join us for a great day with the family. If you have family pictures or other family keepsakes, feel free to bring them to show.

The weather was hot but we did our cemetery tour despite the heat on Saturday. Richard Dixon led the tour and William Lewis, James Alexander, Oren Farabee, Brice Ward, June Voyles, Anita Zink, Ken Underwood and myself all enjoyed the tour. We visited Daniel Voyles, Rolin Voyles, David Voyles, Lee Smith/Abel Voyles and Big Spring Cemeteries.

The reunion went extremely well and 96 Voyles descendants were present. The food was delicious as usual and I think everyone had a good time. I have pictures on the following pages of the descendants of each line.

I want to say a big thank you for the generous offering in honor of Harold Lewis.

Our 85th reunion will be at Lyles Park and will be held 8-21-2011.

You can follow Larry Frederick on his adventure with his daughter on Facebook.

More on our reunion last month:

The lucky winner of the Voyles quilt was Ruby Humphrey
The throw for the youngest went to Isaac Gray

The throw for the oldest went to Kathleen Voyles (92 years old)
The person winning the throw for coming the farthest distance was Carl Voyles from Denver, Colorado.

Our attendance was 96, very good but we would like to see more people there.

Does anyone have suggestions about something they would like to see raffled off and or an event we could plan for Saturday before the reunion? We welcome all suggestions as this is your reunion, too.

Thank you Aaron for the CD of pictures. They are a treasure.

Donnie Voyles Restored F1 Ford Truck

....Donnie has been restoring this truck all summer and now has the tags and can hit the road..!!! He did all the work from the frame up except for the paint and minor body work

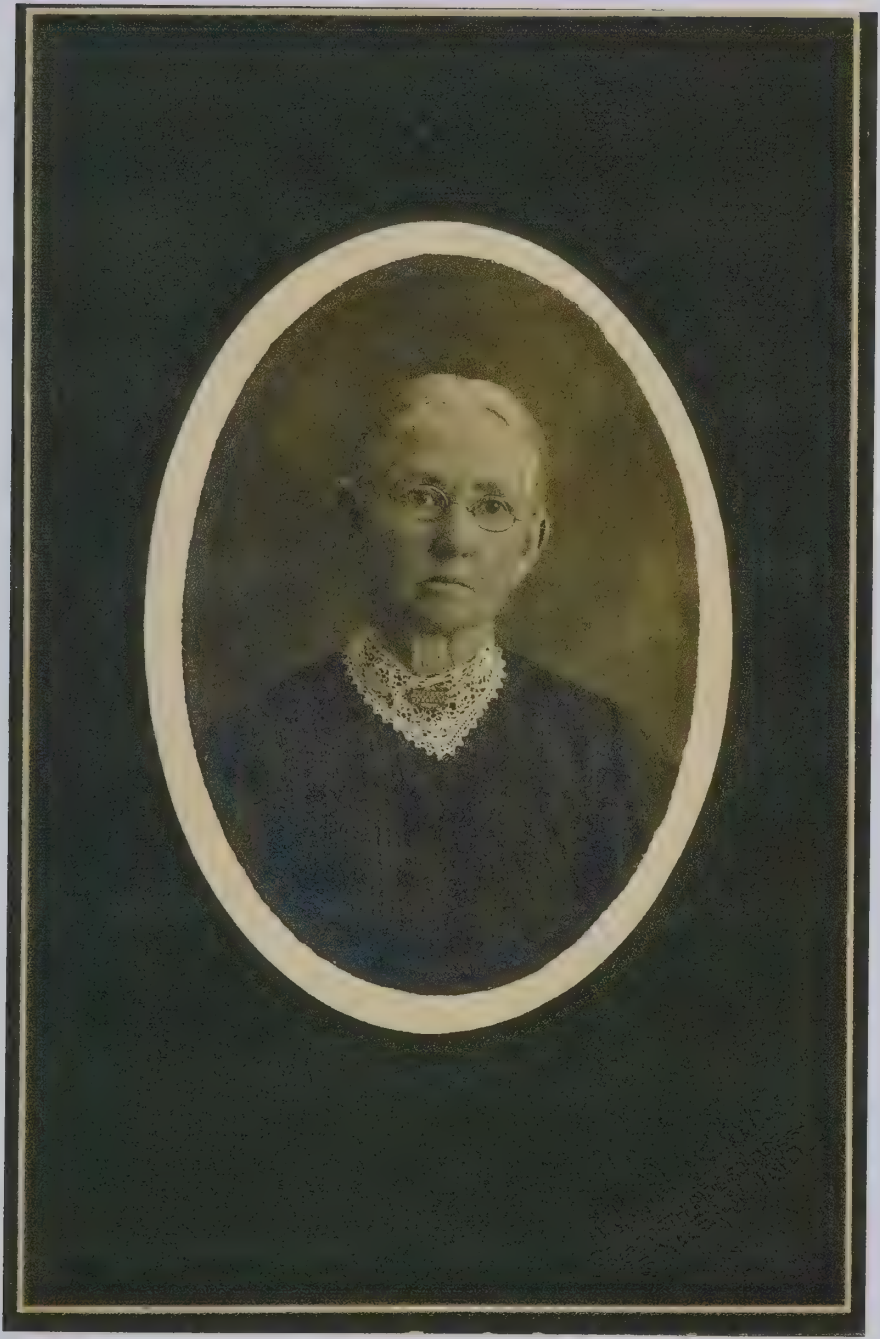
My mother, Ruth Elizabeth Voyles (1909-1970) worked at the F.W. Woolworth store in the city of her birth: Fairfield, Iowa. She is standing at the far right. Several years ago, a co-worker at my place of employment, Betty Barber Boutelle, mentioned that she, too, was born in Fairfield. I had known Betty for a number of years and had no idea of our connection.

I was going through some old pictures, and came across this picture. I showed it to Betty to see if she could recognize anyone. She said, "That looks like my Aunt Florence!", pointing to the lady wearing the necklace-like thing around her neck. The lady's name: Florence Heston.

The others in the picture are unidentified.

Yep -- it really is a small world! Steve

Can anyone identify this lady?? Michael Limer is a descendant of Priscilla Voyles and Nathan Smith and needs your help. Please remember to label your pictures so that future generations will know these people.



Please remember our troops.

I received this from Ryan Zink, Congratulations to the family. Ryan and I have 3 lines in common, Zink, Markland and Voyles. It is indeed a small world!!

Today we praise the King of Kings. Again, we have witnessed that all things work for good for those who love the Author of Life, Jesus Christ. This year of incredible blessing and answered prayers has peaked with the safe and healthy arrival of our son.

DEWELL OSWALD ZINK was born by cesarean section at 9:26a on November 18, 2010. He weighed 7 lbs 7 oz and was 19.5 inches long. Amanda has lost a few fights with nauseousness and will be very slow moving for a few days. Dewell (pronounced dual) is doing great. He's spent most of the morning wrapped up sleeping on Amanda's chest. Our first impression is that he looks a lot like his brother.
We have attached a few of his birthday photos.
Dewell is the tenth grandchild on Ryan's side of the family and the third on Amanda's side. He is named after family friend, Dewell Eugene Bryant (1934-), and Ryan's Great-Grandpa, Lotus Oswald Zink (1893-1979). Icen and Simone can't wait to hold their little brother and sing "Happy Birthday".We look forward to seeing many of you after we get home and are settled in. Two doctors told Amanda she would never have children, but God has a sense of humor and has blessed us with three. Please remember us in your prayers as well as our numerous friends who have been unable to become pregnant, have suffered through the loss of a child, or who have now been blessed through adoption.

Ryan & Amanda Zink

Ryans' line is: Ryan Zink, Joe Zink, Ferrell Zink, Ethel Cromer, Evaline Voyles, Daniel and Emsley Markland, Thomas, William, JacobVoyles.

I hope everyone had a Happy Thanksgiving, I know I did. And may we all have a Merry Christmas.

We do have a Facebook Group now. Come join us. Email me for further details. It is a private group and you will need an invitation.

Please remember our troops who are sacrificing their time and more for our freedoms.

If you have news you would like to share, please send them to me and I will get them in the December Voyles Newsletter.

THE GOLD RUSH IN NORTH CAROLINA

Interesting to our own family is the story of the gold rush of North Carolina. It all began in Cabarrus County which is where the Voyles family was living about that time. One man by the name of Reed had two children who were playing in the creek about 1799 and found a stone that they carried home. It weighed about 17 pounds. The family used it for a door stop for several years and one day the father took the stone into the city and inquired about what it was. The examined the stone and said that it was gold. So Mr. Reed was asked how much he wanted for the stone. He thought about it and said that he would take a week's wages. So he sold the stone for about $3.50. It was estimated to be worth more than $3,000 at a later calculation. So when the news got out, it started a gold rush in North Carolina and many were finding gold in their creeks and rivers, but mostly it was embedded in the rocks. For several years they took gold from the North Carolina soil.

About 1803 a man by the name of Bechler came from Germany and established his jewelry and clock making business in the in Rutherford County. It wasn't long before he was minting gold coins and he made the first gold dollar ever minted in the U.S.

His gold coins were established as being very exacting in their gold content and so were much in demand in those days, as well as much in demand in today's antique coin market.

A few years later the U.S. government started 3 new mints and one of them was established in Charlotte and so that was the end of his minting of gold coins. By this time the local miners had pretty much taken all the gold from the area and those were the ones who brought him the gold so that he could make the gold coins.

In the end, probably because of the method of producing those coins with mercury, he died much too young. He gave his estate to his son, who also died in a couple years and they lost one other son. They believe now they were poisoned by the mercury with which they worked. The remaining sons reverted back to the jewelry, clock, and gun making business.

But the story is interesting to us because the Voyles family, living in that county, Cabarrus, sold their farm after the death of Rhodesia Bundy Voyles and moved their families to southern Indiana. They came to Indiana about 1813. We might wonder how much they knew about the gold rush at the time because they would have still been living there. Did they move away not knowing they might have a gold mine on their property? They were farmers and hauling their cotton down the river to sell. Perhaps they were forced to leave North Carolina because there were so many of the children and not enough land for all of them. They came in covered wagons to Washington County, Indiana, and became prosperous farmers but we can wonder if they left their real gold back in North Carolina.

Morgan Township

By HARLEY H. HEUSER, Palmyra

As published in the Souvenir Centennial Program for the 1959 Harrison County Fair

Since prehistoric times, migration herds of the bufffalo beat a well worn path from the western plains across northern Morgan Township to the falls of the Ohio.

Before 1800, many explorers, traders, and military men used this Historic overland route from the Ohio River to Fort Sackville in Vincennes. Gen. George Rogers Clarks on one of his expedition's used this route in winning the Northwest Territory.

Early travelers opened a trail from the Ohio northward through Harrison County crossing the Vincennes Trail at the present site of the town of Palmyra. This early "Cross Road" attracted settlers at an early date, and the first settlement was known as the "Cross Roads"; in the year 1808, this was considered the first cross roads in the state of Indiana.

Some of the early settlers were Joseph Avery, Ezekiel Deweese, and Hays McCallan. Hays McCallan purchased a large tract of land through the Federal Land Office; this was recorded on Nov 14, 1810; he also the built the first building to serve as a post office and hostelry.

Many of the early settlers in the township came from Europe; many were of German origin who were seeking freedom and a new way of life. Following the settlers at the "Cross Roads", other pioneer families were the Bostons, Wennings, Diedrichs, Kahls, Millers and others.

CONFECTIONERY

Other settlers who came to the vicinity of Bradford were the families of Raake, Fessel, Stemm and Lagel; the majority of these settlers came between 1820 and 1860. Hays McCallan platted the original town of forty-eight lots, and the "First Cross Road settlement" was named Carthage in the year 1836. On March 25, 1839, the East Addition was platted and the town was renamed Palmyra which name became official thereafter.

The Old Vincennes Road was well traveled as early as 1812; stage and mail routes were established before 1820. Palmyra received mail on the first Star Route in the state from New Albany to Vincennes.

The early turnpike was planned in 1836 at a cost of $1,150,000 but the panic of 1837 terminated this plan. The New Albany and Vincennes Turnpike Company was organized in 1840 which built the plank road as far west as Fredericksburg. This road was uncessful and a road of crushed stone was constructed during 1843-1844. It was one of the first stone roads in the state. In the year 1845, a telegraph line was built from New Albany through Palmyra to Vincennes; this was abandoned shortly after the Civil War.

The town of Bradford was platted in the original town of 72 lots in 1838; the Ellis Addition was laid out in later years enlarging the town considerably. Some of the best farm land in Harrison County lies near the outskirts of Bradford. St. Michaels Catholic Church is located in South Bradford. This church building is one of the fine structures of Harrison County. Bradford can claim the birthplace of one of the illustrous sons of Harrison County, the late Hon. Robert J. Tracewell, Comptroller of the Treasury of the United STates. For many years, several stores and a tailor shop flourished in Bradford. Clothing is still in existence that was hand sewn by Henry Jessberg, the tailor.

The Central Barren community began about 1848 - the first families to settle were the Kahls and the Feins. The post office existed from 1900-1904. The general store was established in 1890 by Paul Wenning. The Central Barren German Methodist Church began in the year 1845; land was deeded for a new church in 1854 to replace the early log structure; the present church was built in 1891.

The old German Brass Band of Central Barren was very popular in its day. The group was active from 1870-1885.

Central Barren is the home of the well known Wenning Packing Company, one of the large business enterprises of south-eastern Indiana. Thie packing firm was founded by the late Mr. Arthur Wenning who gradually expanded a small business into a large enterprise. The Wennings descend from one of the early pioneer families of Morgan Township.

It may be stated at this time that due to limited space in thie publication, many of the incidents pertaining to Morgan Township history will have to be omitted.

Churches were organized at an early date; some of the present churches were founded in teh early part of the last century. The present churches of pioneer origin being the United Brethern and Church of Christ of Palmyra, the Methodist of Central Barren, and the St. Michael's Catholic and United Brethern of Bradford.

During the Gold Rush of 1849, Hays McCallen, Jr. built a store in Palmyra to supply the wagon trains heading for the western country. The building was enlarged in 1880 and sold to John H. Martin who was later in partnership with William P. Huff; the firm was organized as Martin, Huff & Company. At the turn of the 20th century, this enterprise was one of the large department stores in southern Indiana; this firm bought much of its goods in car lod lots. This structure burned in 1932.

During the Civil War, most of the local soldiers were in the 66th Regiment of Volunteers with Lt. David Simpson of Palmyra as adjutant.

Late in the afternoon of July 9. 1863, General John Hunt Morgan and his confederate cavalry 2500 strong moved into Morgan Township. Advance units moved into Palmyra on the morning of July 10 creating much fear and excitement. Leading citizens were held as hostages while the confederate flag was raised in the town.

A large flour mill was built in 1830, a three story brick structure by a Mr. Woods. This was one of the early mills to grind "patent" flour. This building was owned and operated by William Wolfe when it was destroyed by fire in 1905. The present building of the Harrison County Bank rests on the old foundation of this mill.

The old Farmers Store was conducted by Mr. L. A. Kahl until 1927 -- this building was razed to make way for a garage and implement business. Mr. Kahl has been well known for half a century in the mortuary business.

For many years, Mr. Britton Boston was editor and publisher of the Palmyra Gazette; this paper was widely read and its job printing was quality at its best. Mr. Boston's grandfather, Benjamin Boston, was an early pioneer and homesteader; he saw the last of the migrating buffalo and killed the last know bear in Morgan Township.

Much of the details and facts of this article were taken from old documents now in the possession of the writer of this article.

group of Confederates, led by Captain Thomas H. Hines, one of General John Morgan's officers, went farther and raided the counties of Perry, Orange, Crawford, Washington, and Harrison. Posing as Union soldiers, they met no resistance at first, but just before they reached Paoli their disguise was discovered and they had to retrace their steps. This time, the Indiana Legion was alerted and went after them. Most of the band were overtaken and captured on Blue River Island in the Ohio. Captain Hines and two of his men managed to escape by swimming across the river. Hines returned the following month with General Morgan, in what was the greatest invasion of Indiana during the Civil War.

Morgan's Raid.—On July 8, 1863, a Confederate general and his troops, about three thousand of them on horseback, made the greatest invasion that ever took place in Indiana's history. General John Hunt Morgan, commonly known as the "Prince of Raiders," made his spectacular dash through southeastern Indiana at the very peak of the Civil War. There has always been some question as to the purpose of this raid, but it is generally understood that its main aim was to divert the attention of the Federal troops in order to clear the way for a southern attempt to capture Louisville and Cincinnati. Morgan was only to invade Kentucky, but he exceeded his authority and decided that a raid across the Ohio would be more effective. The raiders crossed the Ohio River at Brandenburg, Kentucky, during the night of July 8, encountering a few shots from some small batteries on the Indiana shore, and overcoming the maneuvers of a little steamer, the Lady Pike. All of the raiders were on Indiana soil by daylight of July 9. Morgan is believed to have taken about three thousand troops into Indiana. He also expected to arouse the disloyal Knights of the Golden Circle (southern sympathizers), who then seemed to be very strong in the southern part of Indiana.

In the meantime, Governor Morton had received word of the raid and immediately ordered all able-bodied men to take up whatever arms they had, form themselves into companies of at least sixty persons, and prepare themselves to resist the invasion. Within a few days, thousands were ready to defend their state. Never had there been so much activity. Within forty-eight hours some 65,000 men were actually enlisted temporarily. It was literally true that:

> "Farmers left their grain to rot in the fields, mechanics dropped their tools, merchants abandoned their stores, professional men their desks, clerks forgot their ledgers, and students their textbooks and young and old alike all swarmed in constantly thickening throngs to the capital or the nearest place of rendezvous, as if there were no duty or interest of that hour but the safety of the state."

And the safety of the state was definitely threatened.

On the morning of July 9, Morgan and his men were in the vicinity of Corydon where they met spirited opposition by some 400 local militia. There was a lively little battle about 10:00 A. M. on the hills in the woods just south of town. In a few hours Morgan's superior numbers caused the local defenders to surrender, and the Confederates had control of Corydon. This event is officially recorded as a battle of the Civil War, the Battle of Corydon. It was one of the two battles in the Civil War which were fought north of the Mason and Dixon Line. The other was the Battle of Gettysburg.

Morgan set up his headquarters at the principal hotel in town, the Kinder House, which still stands today. His men spent most of the day plundering the stores and homes of Corydon and collecting horses from the surrounding areas. By this time, General Edward Hobson, also a Kentuckian, was crossing the Ohio River with about 3,000 Union troops, mostly Re their 3rd daughter, Rachel Voyles - OneWorldTree shows that she had a daughter, Mary Voyles, b. Feb 2, 1797 in NC, d. Oct 29, 1865, and who married William Townsend, appears to be the same Mary Voyles who is listed as the last child of William & Hannah above (which may not be correct? as Hanna would have been in her 50's I think by then).

Mary, the daughter of Rachel? supposedly had Stephen Hadley as her father, but no marriage that I found. Re her marriage to William Townsend, I originally had Apr 1 between 1813 - 1819. One WorldTree shows a wedding date of Jan 2, 1817, which is the birthdate of their 2nd child, Ellison Townsend. (Maybe both dates didn't get reported until then?? One daughter, Lucy, is listed prior to Ellison with no birthdate - she could just be out of order.

So do you know if she is Rachel's daughter - born out of wedlock - or did Rachel marry Hadley first? Maybe Hannah wasn't able to take care of her if her daughter?

I've skipped around too much in putting all these people into Family Tree Maker so go back to them & add more as I remember. Wonder if I can get my records caught up by summer?

Had an accident - I thought it was minor - but the other ins who pd the claim didn't want to put more than $4,000 into a 2000 vehicle, they gave me a settlement, so I bought an '08 Chev Malibu sdn wk ago today. (No settlement on injuries, they were minor - a BIG left knee (my bad one), a lg bruise where steering wheel hit leg above knee, my upper arms were sore a few days, but no whiplash I think because I got hit when turning L on a green arrow, the other car ran a red lite & I didn't see them until they were right there, no time to tighten up!) '08 Chevs come with OnStar! Pd for a yr. So now OnStar rides with me all the time, ha.

My one grandson, Rob, & family planning to move back to Colo from Boston. CorrieAnn & Allie are already there, C looking for a job, Rob to give notice on his job when she obtains one, then they'll officially move. Judy leaves Mar 23 for 2 wk trip to Spain, Portugal, & Morocco, a group of 44. Bruce about the same. Judy said they had a blizzard Sunday!

Alumni for Payne, OH will be 1 wk earlier this yr, hope to be there & at the Klinker reunion. I got a note from Barbara today - I feel badly about Roger's passing. I know Harold will miss him lots. Last time Aunt Helen & I talked, it must have been over 1-1/2 hr, but always have free weekend time. She told me of several in family who have cancer or had it - scary. Even Mom had it & recovered, but treatments cut short her life I'm sure.

So are you going to show me the pic of your Dad & his car? I think it was taken at Grandpa & Grandma Klinker's farm S of Monroeville as I vaguely have a dim pic in my mind. Someone had a roadster or coupe with a rumble seat I recall - thought that might have been Darrell??

Lovely weather in Phx now, wish you were here. Hope to see you in June,

Hugs, Ilene

I realized I didn't say anything about Rachel being married to Joseph Fulk. There is one son, Otto, for whom I have a birth date & some info. I haven't tried to look up any other childred the 2 of them may have had. And Fulk was married before he married Rachel & he had children.

Just letting you know that I have some of that info also.

Hi Betty,
I just wondered if my e-mails came through. I corrected both and made a copy.
You will like what I found yesterday in the library. In the Helm's 1880 History of Allen County I found in the back of the book a City Directory including all the townships. It had the sections, year they settled in Perry township, where they came from, township they settled in, and their occupation. .Pg. 185 Eel River and pg. 187 Perry. Good information for us.
I sent in this noon the grant application for the brochures. I have all houses to go but the Bobay and Hursh homestead. I will need to locate the maps tomorrow for them and use what information we have for the back. I'll let you all check it over before I take it in.
Thanks, Shirley

Hi Betty, thought you might like to see this. Love, Kari Harvey

Hello Cousins,

Summer is coming and time to reserve a place for our rendezvous! Willa Mae Ruoff graciously agreed to do the leg work, so we are planning to meet at Buffalo Trace Park in Palmyra, again. This will give us another chance to see the area where Katie and George started our family. It should be a lovely time of year, when the trees may be in peak color.

Date: Saturday, October 13, 2007

Time: Around Noon. Come earlier if you can. The time together is always too short because of travel time.

Location: On State Route 150, about 1/4 mile east of the intersection of SR135 and US Hwy 150, (the only stoplight in Palmyra, IN). Buffalo Trace Park is on the north side of the highway. This is about 40 minutes
from Louisville, KY airport.

I plan to be there and hope to see as many of you as possible. I'm happy to say that my daughter and her family, from California, plan to attend for the first time. If you hope to be there, or KNOW that you cannot, please let me know. We'll probably have fried chicken, as usual; and those who attend bring something to share.

Your Cousin,
Carol Schick
Corona, CA

John Milton Voyles b September 25, 1838 Washington County, Indiana is the son of John Voyles and Argent Markland John Voyles d October 1839 Washington County Indiana and Argent Markland d Bef. May 04, 1842 Washington County, Indiana.

John and Argent were married December 13, 1838 Washington County, Indiana (Washington Co., IN marriages to 1850)

I'm wondering who the other John Milton Voyles is who died in Colorado is? I don't think anyone knows who he is, yet but I am still trying to work on it.

This is not the same John Voyles b 1838 in Washington Co., Indiana. He is in Lawrence Co., IN.

I am looking for information on Curt Voyles of Indiana. He died approx. 1967 in New Albany and was buried somewhere in southern Indiana. He had one child, my Grandmother, Maycle Fern Voyes b. 1909.

Thank You,

Jim Watson

Thanks for your note, but you have the wrong Sion here. There were several, most of them being in SC, but the Sion Coat(e)s who married Lucy Simpson in Rowan Co. in 1802 was definitely the son of a William Coat(e)s who was in Rowan by 1778. All of these Coates were previously settled in Edgecombe Co NC and before that were in and around the Pasquotank Co. area(Old Albemarle). From the Coates list on Rootsweb, I know of at least one who has connections to the Gabriel Garret Coats you mentioned, but as of now, I don't think that anyone has come up with any evidence that shows an immediate connection between the two family groups.

As for the Simpsons, I feel that the key to learning more about them is finding where they lived prior to their arrival in NC. My instincts and the facts that I have found are telling me that they were in N. VA(Stafford and/or Fairfax Counties)and that Benjamin of Rowan is the grandson of a Joab Simpson, who was b. in Anne Arundel Co. MD c. 1718 and d. in Pasquotank Co. NC.

Joab, I believe, is the father of a Wm Simpson, who married Lettice Lunsford in Staff. Co. VA in 1756, which fits nicely with the birthyear I have on Benjamin of Rowan(1763).

However, as far as the Simpsons of Rowan are concerned, this remains my best reconstruction of Benjamins' line, and is still a work in progress.....I could still be wrong or at least partly wrong in drawing a tentative connection between Benjamin of Rowan and the Wm who marr. in VA in 1756, but so far, have found nothing that would make me reconsider(so far).

If you have anything(or find anything in the future) in the way of hints/clues/facts about Benjamin in Rowan, please keep me in mind.
Thanks again and best regards,
Larry

Looking for Henry's father. I have found a listing of the Kittery, York Co, Maine Simpson family that lists a Henry born 1731. The will states that Henry (5th) son of Henry (4th) and Sarah Johnson was living in Boston 1770. My theory is that my Henry may be the 5th Henry from ME. And his son would be the 6th Henry. My Henry's other son was Isaac Parker Simpson. Would like information about Henry the 5th form this line.

My Henry's information is.......
Henry Simpson was born est 1730 and died est
1810 in Boston, Suffolk, MA, about age 80.

Henry married Ann Parker in 10 Jan 1760

1790 Census Records list 3 males over 16 and 4 females in houshold. Also lists a Mrs Lowell at same residence....
Simpson Henry 3, 4 Boston Town 193
Lowell Mrs. 1 Boston Town 193

Boston City Directory, 1800
Simpson Henry mason 19 Federal Street
Henry, Jr. mason 19 Federal Street
Isaac mason 19 Federal Street

I have not found any information on my Henry Jr. I have followed the line of Isaac Parker Simpson. There are 3 Isaac P. Simpsons in this line.

Marriages in my line are to some older families in the area including, Stetson (Stutson), Austin, Green, Smith. Popular Givin names are Anna, Joanna (Johanna), Henrietta, John, Jacob, William, James.

The Stetson(Stutson)line is ......
Capt. John and Joanna (Green) Stetson.
Capt. John, son of Abisha and Elizabeth (James) Stetson b: 10, Jul.,1741 Hingham, MA; d:7, Aug.,1799,m: Joanna Green, dau. of Timothy Green. She d: 21, Oct.,1815,Boston, age 71.

Capt. John was a carpenter and built the dome of the new State House (Barry 1847) He joined the Ancient and Honorable Artillery Co.in 1765. He was also captain of 3rd Co.,Boston Regt. Militia in the Rev. War.

Isaac Simpson, III moved from Massachusetts to Tennessee sometime between 1828 to 1833. I beleive his move was through the Carolinas.

Willard H. Voyles

Willard H. Voyles, a leading representative of the Craig County bar and a member of the firm of Voyles & Rye, practicing at Vinita, has followed in the professional footsteps of his father and is worthily sustaining the traditions of the family in this respect. He was born at Salem, Indiana, September 13, 1874, of the union of Samuel B. and Maude H. (Huston) Voyles, the former also a native of that place while the latter was born at Macomb, Illinois. The father was reared on a farm and after completing his public school course became a student at a law school in St. Louis where he acquired his professional training. Following his graduation he opened an office in Salem and for ten years there engaged in general practice, winning a large clientele. His pronounced ability led to his selection for the office of judge of the district court and for fourteen years he acted in that capacity. His decisions were strictly fair and impartial, embodying the most correct application of legal principles, while the equity of the case was almost manifest in his opinions, and his course received high endorsement. He also served as state senator and filled other public offices of trust and responsibility, doing effective service for the public good, and he was numbered among the most prominent men in the state. He passed away at Salem on the 21st of November, 1898, but the mother survives and is still a resident of that city.

In the acquirement of an education Willard H. Voyles attended the grammar and high schools of his native city and this was followed by a year's preparatory work at Depauw University of Indiana. In 1893 he entered the treasury department at Washington, D. C., in a clerical capacity and while filling that position pursued his studies at the National Law School of that city, which in 1896 conferred upon him the LL. B. degree, while in the following year he received from that institution the degree of LL. M. on the completion of a postgraduate course, being thus exceptionally well qualified for his profession. He retained his position in the treasury department until 1898 and then resigned, returning to Salem, where he entered upon the practice of law. His professional ability soon won recognition and in 1904 he was elected prosecuting attorney of the Forty-second judicial circuit, then comprised of Jackson, Orange and Washington counties, his excellent service in that connection winning him reelection. In 1909 he came to Vinita, where he has since successfully followed his profession, conducting a general law business.

In 1912 he was elected County attorney of Craig County and for two terms was the incumbent in that office, discharging his duties conscientiously and efficiently. In 1917 he joined William T. Rye, with whom he has since been associated, their interests being conducted under the firm style of Voyles & Rye, and the fact that they have been chosen as counsel for the city indicates their high standing in professional circles. They engage in general civil practice and their clientele is an extensive and representative one. Mr. Voyles' legal learning, his analytical mind, the readiness with which he grasps the points in an argument, all combine to make him one of the most capable attorneys who has ever practiced in this part of the state and his upright policy has gained for him the confidence and respect of his professional colleagues and also of the general public.

In 1903, at Salem, Indiana, was solemnized the marriage of Willard H. Voyles and Miss Pearl Beal, a native of that city and a daughter of William A. and Hannah Beal. The father engaged in the grocery business at Salem until 1908, when he removed to Newcastle, Indiana, where he became proprietor of a hotel, continuing active in its management until his demise, which occurred in 1913, when he was fifty-five years of age. The mother survives, and her religious faith is indicated by her membership in the Methodist Episcopal Church, with which Mr. Beal was also affiliated. Mr. and Mrs. Voyles have become the parents of two children: Willard H., Jr., and Marjorie.

Mrs. Voyles is active in club circles of Vinita and the family are earnest and helpful members of the Presbyterian Church, of which Mr. Voyles is an elder. His political allegiance is given to the Democratic Party, for he deems that its policy best conserves national progress and promotes public stability. Fraternally he is identified with the Knights of Pythias. In citizenship he is loyal, progressive and public-spirited and during the World war he acted as chairman of the speakers' bureau. A tireless worker and an earnest student, his ability has developed with the passing years and his talents, natural and acquired, have won for him a position of distinction in the ranks of his profession, while his personal traits are those which make for popularity.

county records on microfilm	The History Room's genealogical holdings are concentrated on the area that comprised "Old Rowan." Rowan County was formed from Anson County in 1753. Anson had been created out of Bladen in 1750. By 1836, five counties had been carved from the original Rowan County: Surry (1770), Burke (1777), Iredell (1788), Davidson (1822), and Davie (1836). Twenty-eight counties were later created out of these first six: Guilford (1770), Wilkes (1777), Randolph (1779), Rockingham (1785), Stokes (1789), Buncombe (1791), Ashe (1799), Haywood (1808), Macon (1828), Yancey (1833), Henderson (1838), Cherokee (1839), Caldwell (1841), Cleveland (1841), McDowell (1842), Alexander (1847), Forsyth (1849), Watauga (1849), Jackson (1851), Madison (1851), Polk (1855), Alleghany (1859), Clay (1861), Transylvania (1861), Mitchell (1861), Swain (1871), Graham (1872), and Avery (1911). The migration path into Rowan (from Pennsylvania, Maryland, Delaware, and New Jersey down the Shenandoah Valley of Virginia) is also given some coverage but not to the same extent as the western North Carolina holdings. There are also materials regarding Tennessee, Kentucky, and Georgia, the areas of the first immigration out of Rowan, and some dealing with eastern North Carolina. The History Room is currently building its collection of microfilmed records from those counties that sprang from old Rowan. Deeds, marriage bonds, court minutes, cohabitation bonds, bastardy bonds, records of road overseers, tax lists, etc, may be found in the Room's microfilm cabinets. Some counties' holdings are more complete than others. (The closer to present-day Rowan, the more complete the Room's holdings are likely to be.) Counties represented in the microfilmed county records include: Alexander, Anson, Ashe, Avery, Blade, Buncombe, Burke, Cabarrus, Caswell, Caldwell, Cumberland, Cleveland, Catawba, Davidson, Davie, Forsyth, Guilford, Granville, Iredell, Lincoln, Macon, Mecklenburg, Mitchell, Montgomery, Randolph, Rockingham, Rutherford, Stanly, Stokes, Surry, Union, Warren, Watauga, Wilkes, Yadkin, and Yancey.

VOL. XXVII JUNE 2004 NO. 2

Letter from President Willie Harlen

To the Members of the Washington County Historical Society:

Due to generous donations of oil stocks from the John Hay family and money from our members and lots of donated volunteer hours, we have accumulated a nice sum in our John Hay Foundation.

We are an ongoing Society. Since 1983, the Historical Society has purchased six properties on South College Ave. and the large property at 309 E. Market out of which we made our much needed parking lot. On the S. College Ave. lots, we made a parking lot, built the Depot and the new Agriculture Building. This was all made possible through the John Hay Foundation.

The Museum is not self-supporting and we withdraw income from the John Hay Foundation each year to cover expenses.

Like all other funds, ours have suffered the last three years due to the Stock Market and rising costs.

Our John Hay Foundation, unlike other foundations, is our own and our money is not locked in and we can withdraw it as needed.

We are asking our membership to help us by making donations to the John Hay Foundation. We are a non-profit organization and all donations are tax deductible.

Please make out checks to: John Hay Foundation and return in the enclosed self-addressed envelope.

On behalf of the Washington County Board of Directors, I want to thank you for any help you can send.

Sincerely,

Willie Harlen

Museum acquires 1947 Salem athletic photos

Thanks to a group of former Salem High School athletes, photos of the school's 1947 athletic teams are now part of the sports memorabilia collection at the Stevens Memorial Museum in Salem.

Warren Colglazier of Fort Wayne, who spearheaded the effort to get the team photos added to the museum's collection, said in the1940s the school only had a yearbook every other year. The museum has yearbooks from the school's past, but without a 1947 yearbook no athletic team photos from that year are on file.

Colglazier, who participated in several sports at Salem, said he contacted some other athletes from the 1947 teams, seeking their assistance in getting pictures made for the museum. The cooperative effort paid off alumni weekend when several of the athletes presented large photographs to the museum.

Among the photos is one of the 1947 cross country team, which placed fourth in state competition. The coach was the late Ray Lee and the runners were Colglazier, Robert Shanks, Frederick Berkey, Keith Nixon, Lee Henry Peugh and Bernard Telle.

A large framed picture of the basketball team included team members James Lloyd, Russell Shields, Marvin Rodman, Donald Deremiah, Dennis Gilstrap, William Powers, James Johns, Kenny Blankenbaker, Bob Geralde, Robert Shanks, Jack Thixton and Colglazier. The student manager was Donald Tatlock and the coach was Donald C. Manlove.

A third photograph featured the school's "yell leaders," including two, Pat Carter McCoskey and Cleo Roll, who were on hand for the presentation.

The two other yell leaders that year were Charles Ribelin and Carolyn Jackson.

Also included in the presentation was a framed copy

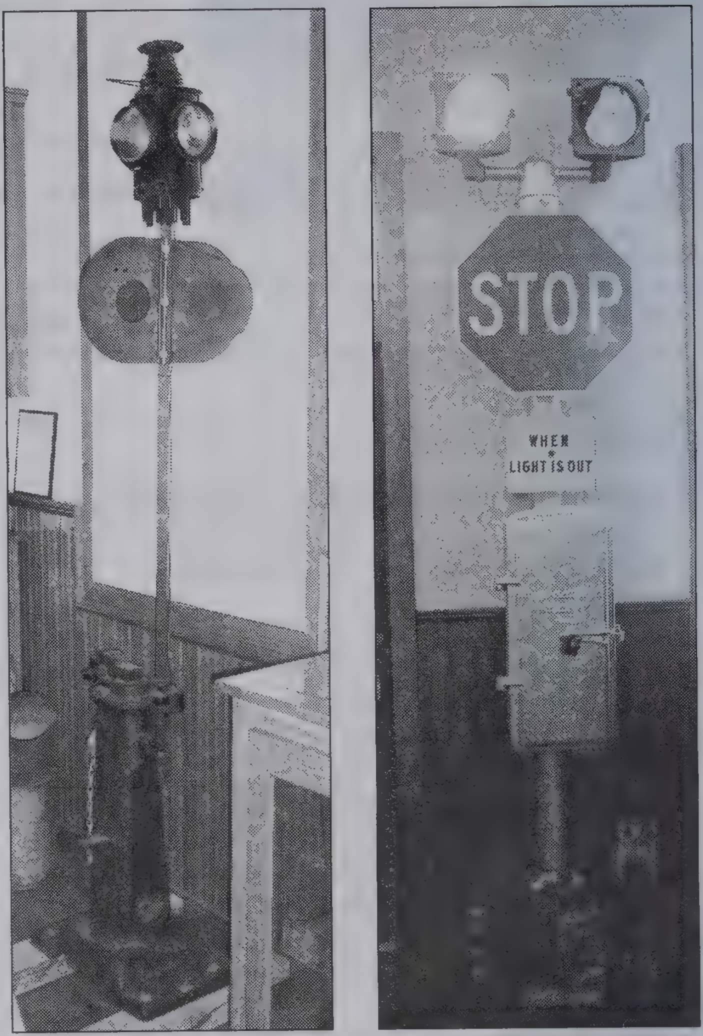
Depot's 3rd anniversary open house June 12, 13



Photos by Cecil J. Smith

The Depot, the railroad museum at the John Hay Center, will be observing its third birthday Saturday and Sunday, June 12 and 13. The two day event will coincide with the Piecemakers quilt show that is scheduled at the Stevens Memorial Museum.

The open house will be from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Saturday and noon to 4 p.m. Sunday.

During the two days, visitors will be able to tour The Depot's 1929 Monon caboose, view displays related to railroading in Washington County, and watch as model trains wind their way through miniature towns in the museums HO gauge model railroad.

Visitors will also be able to operate The Depot's telegraph machine and fill the exhibit room with the sounds of the ringing of an authentic locomotive bell.

The Depot opened in June 2001. The 5400-square foot building, a replica of the Monon Railroad's station that used to be on South Main Street in Salem, was built by students from Salem and Eastern high schools who were members of the Building Trades Class at Prosser School of Technology. Thirty-nine students worked on the project for two years.

The railroad had three stations that served Salem: the first was burned in 1863 by Gen. John Hunt Morgan and his confederate raiders; the second was destroyed in an accidental fire in 1908 that burned an entire block of buildings; the third was torn down by the L&N Railroad in 1982, nine years after it was closed. The Depot is a replica of the third station.

When it opened, The Depot initially featured toy and model trains and railroad memorabilia that was donated from the collection of Cecil and Martha Smith of Salem. In the past three years, many other interesting and rare items have filled the shelves and display areas.

Some of the newest additions to the display are a chair from Monon parlor-observation car #91; a switchstand from the L&N Railroad, and a "Stop When Light Is Out" crossing signal that used to protect Day Crossing east of Salem.

Tools, advertising items, locomotive bells, photographs and railroad-related furnishings have been added recently to the collection. Also, The Depot's library has expanded with the donation of more railroad books.

The Depot's main attraction, a large model railroad that fills most of the basement, has grown steadily. The model depicts the Monon Railroad running through Washington County during the period 1957 to 1964.

John K. Campbell of Salem designed the model and works on it daily, with assistance from a handful of dedicated volunteers, including John G. Campbell of Louisville, who oversees construction of many of the structures that help create miniature replicas of Salem, Pekin and Campbellsburg. "Louisville John" and "Salem John" were each recognized by the historical society as "Volunteers of the Year" in 2002 and 2003.

Also working on the model regularly are Richard Cantwell, a retired Monon employee who lives at Borden; Bill Litkenhous of Bedford, and Andy Long, Fredericksburg.

Several other people also are building structures for the layout. One of them, Gerry Reisterer, a former Salem resident who now lives in Michigan, receives photos and plans through the mail, turns those plans into structures and mails them back to Salem.

The model has been under construction since before The Depot opened. It could take several more years before it is even close to completion.

"The model is an attraction in itself," said Cecil J. Smith, volunteer stationmaster. "Visitors come in all the time to see how it is progressing. Once it is completed, it will be more than a model railroad; it will be an historic diorama of Salem, Pekin and Campbellsburg as they were a half century ago."

The all-volunteer organization also includes several area residents who serve as "agents on duty" in The Depot's office. Their job is to greet visitors and to provide tours of the facility when requested. These volunteers include Bob Arnold, Ginger Morris, Lillian Loughran, Harry Graves, Leonard Chastain, and Oma Huckleberry, all of Salem, and David Longest, New Albany.

"Without our volunteers, it would be virtually impossible to construct the model railroad or to even keep The Depot open," said Smith.

D. Jack Mahuron has served as The Depot's financial coordinator since the inception of the project.

Also assisting on special occasions are Julie Campbell of Louisville and Martha Smith, Carol Mahuron, Susan Graves and Linda Campbell, all of Salem.

Although it was returned, the stolen locomotive was damaged. John Campbell of Salem, pictured here, was able to get it running again, but because of the theft and repairs, the model railroad was shut down for three weeks.

Stolen locomotive comes home

An unfortunate incident in January resulted in a change in policy concerning public access to some areas of The Depot.

One of the locomotives used to power trains on the model railroad was stolen by a Depot visitor.

Prior to the theft, visitors could tour the model railroad area in the basement, even if there was no operator available. The locomotive was returned two weeks after it was stolen, but the incident was a wakeup call that items left unattended could be stolen.

Now, visitors can only enter the basement if one of the Depot volunteers is working in the basement or is available to accompany them.

of a Louisville Courier-Journal story that reported the names of players who made the All-Southeast Conference team that year. Colglazier, representing Salem High School, is pictured in the article as is the late Frank O'Bannon, representing Corydon high School. O'Bannon later became governor of Indiana.

Accepting the gift for the museum was Willie Harlen, president of the Washington County Historical Society.

Colglazier said he was pleased that the teams are now represented among the thousands of sports-related items displayed at the Stevens Memorial Museum. "There were yearbooks in 1946 and 1948, but we were the year there wasn't any."

Historical Society president Willie Harlen, center, and Martha Bowers of the museum staff accept sports photos from several who played on Salem High School teams in 1947. Pictured are, from left, Jack Thixton, Bowers, Cleo Roll, Harlen, Kenny Blankenbaker, Pat McCoskey, Bob Geralde, Warren Colglazier and Robert Shanks.

Later, the group presented a framed photograph of that year's American Legion baseball team to Post 41. The team was sponsored by the post and by Eddie Gilstrap Motors.

Old Settlers' Dinner

Our annual Old Settlers' Dinner will be held on Saturday night, September 11, at 6:00 p.m. The Historical Society has been holding these Old Settlers' meetings continuous since 1897. This was when our Historical Society was officially formed.

We have had many interesting speakers through the years and this year is no exception.

Danny Back will give the program on Steamboats on the Western Waters. The presentation gives the audience an overview of the rise and fall of the steamboat, opening of the rivers for regular service, and types of steamboats. The program focuses on the Ohio and Mississippi rivers and their tributaries as during the height of the steamboat era they were considered the western waters. The speaker usually adds a section that discusses boat or rivers of local interest.

Our official caterer, Mary Frances Nicholson, will serve one of her famous dinners. The cost will be $12.00 a person. RSVP Stevens' Museum 812-883-6495.

2004 Old Settlers' Days Festival Sept. 17, 18 & 19

by Roy Overshiner

This year's festival will be held September 17, 18 & 19 -- Friday, Saturday and Sunday. The festival will kick off on Friday night at 6:00 p.m. with the Friday Night on the Square activities which is popular with the young people here in town. There will be music, a teen dance and a car show with several returning food vendors. We are hoping for the annual auction to be held on Saturday this year.

On Saturday starting at 9:00 a.m. the activities begin on the John Hay Center grounds. The festival here will reflect much of what it did last year, with the exception that the Union Army Encampment will not be with us. They are going to a national meet. But you will find the village teeming with things to do and see. There will be items to purchase and a shuttle ride service will be provided for those who park at the main parking area at the Washington County Fairgrounds just two blocks away from the village.

Saturday evening after 5:00 p.m. there will be a new Folk Dance Contest presented by Indiana area schools which is hosted by the Salem Community Schools. We do not know how big this will be but it is popular.

On Sunday starting at 12 noon we will have the flag raising and salute. And this year there will be a special wreath laying and roll call ceremony by the local SAR and DAR societies for the Revolutionary Soldiers who had come to Washington County and are buried here. Then the afternoon will continue with activities until 4:00 p.m.

Parking will be a problem this year due to the many construction sites around town. One site is just one block from the festival and another is three blocks away. So while attending, plan to use the fairground parking area and shuttle rides. They are a free service.

For upcoming details and changes, if any, please check the new John Hay Center website soon to be up and running for your convenience. Hoping to see you at the festival.

News from the museum

At long last, we are online and have e-mail. Our address is jhc@blueriver.net. Justin Harter, our high school helper, is working on our webpage and hopes to have it going by the time you read this. Our webpage will be under stevensmuseum.com so look for us. We are fortunate to have Justin working for us. He helps the high school with their computers and webpage and plans to work in this field after graduation.

Part 2 – A Series On 'The Tatlocks' ...

Early Washington County Settlers

By MILDRED TATLOCK BINDER

Editor's Note: Following is the second of a series of articles about the "Tatlocks" of Washington County. Prepared by Mildred Tatlock Binder of Waterloo, Nebr., the articles are concerned with the early settlement in this country of the Tatlocks, and later, their move to Washington County and the Salem area.

* * * * * * * * * *

"History of Perquiman's County" by Winslow states that 'Orapeake' or 'Corapeake' in Gates County was one of, if not the first settlement made in North Carolina. Until 1779, Perquiman County ran all the way to the Virginia line. Quakers appeared in Virginia soon after the organization of the sect. They were lawabiding, industrious, frugal and friendly with Indians, and others religious people far from their own churches might gladly join themselves to the Friends who were always quick to establish their Meeting Houses as the hub of community activity and order. Due to wilderness conditions and scattered settlers, this would not be easy in many cases. Hinshaw, the historian who has left us so much in compiled Quaker records, says that some went as missionaries into Virginia as early as 1656. 'They bore witness of their faith under bodily persecution in Virginia.' He writes so we may believe that people who had persecuted Quakers in England continued to do so when they made contacts on this side of the sea. This would account for the first settlers leaving the fruits of their labors and going far into the wilderness to make another start.

In Vol. I - Hinshaw's "Encyclopedia of Quaker Genealogy" we read: North Carolina Quakerism had its beginning toward the end of the 17th Century in the Precincts of Perquiman's and Pasquotank, coastal country. The earliest existing records of a Monthly Meeting in Perquiman county began in 1680. The first Monthly Meeting of Friends on the Delaware River began in Burlington, in 1681. This meeting had under its care, early little settlements on the west bank of the river, – Shockamaxon, Chester, Hoarkills, New Castle, and Falls.

Today's people can never know the full story of those wanderers seeking a haven, and how so many have gone farther than others, returned and brought newcomers. Uncle Claude, (F. C. Tatlock) the last of my father's immediate family, wished to help me with this history in his later years and he told me frequently, and without variance that one of his mother's relatives was present at the signing of Penn's Treaty with the Indians in 1682. A Tatlock could well have been there, since those who left Virginia in 1653 might have journeyed as far as Pennsylvania ... and returned with Quaker missionaries working their way down the coast. Uncle Claude also joked to me about our Indian blood and said it came from the Pocohantas line!

After finding Tatlocks, Truebloods and associated families who traveled with them, in the Meeting Records, they have not been difficult to trace.

One of the earliest Meetings to be established was Newbegun Monthly Meeting, in existence in Pasquotank County soon after 1700. It is likely the name represented the new settlement from Virginia. I have tried to find records of that Meeting and of Burlington Meeting but no source of information on such records can give them.

Hinshaw give, in Pasquotank Monthly Meeting:

1782-8-21 Edward Tatlock, of Newbegun Creek, rqcue (requests to come under the care of Pasquotank MM), 1782-2-21 Susannah, Edward's wife, rqcue.

1782-8-21 John Tatlock of Newbegun Cr. (bro., we believe, to Edw.) rqcue.

1782-10-16 Keziah, wife of John rqcue.

1782-9-15 James Tatlock (bro. ? to the others) rqcue.

1785-7-20 John Tatlock and children, Elizabeth, Absalom, John and Jemima - recrq (rec'd by request).

1784-7-20 Keziah (under care for sometime).

1786-2-15 Edw. and children, Jesse, Joshua, Miles, Demsey, Joseph, Anna, Susannah - recrq (received by request). This is four years after their request was made and it is possible they did not make the proposed move in 1782.

1787-6-16 James - rqcue.

1790-2-20 Sarah and Peggy Tatlock of the Narrows -. Another Edward Tatlock was recorded here, with his wife, Elizabeth and two children, John, b-10-3, and Joshua, b-3-28.

1791-3-19 Edward and children, Jesse, Joshua, Miles, Demsey, Joseph, Anna, Susannah, Mary, Aaron and Deborah, rqct Perquiman's MM. (Last three born since record of 1786 'request certificate to move'.)

1791-3-19 Susannah (wife of Edward) rqct Perquiman's MM.

In Pasquotank County records, mention is made of Sara Trueblood's land - dated July 21, 1748. (Truebloods and Tatlocks).

In 1794-Perquiman's Monthly Meeting (MM) (held at Wells after 1764) was divided and a new MM was established at Sutton's Creek, Perquiman's Co., and the old Meeting continued at Piney Woods. A list of names of the persons who were now members of the new Meeting at Sutton's Creek includes:

Benjamin Albertson, Sr., Benjamin Albertson, Jr., Chalkley Albertson, Elizabeth Albertson, Francis Albertson and other children. Also: John Cosand, Hollowells, Jessops, Morgans, John Anderson, ("Uncle John") – (My father used to talk about an Uncle John Anderson in his child-

BRANHAM TAVERN

1. Corydon Capitol State Historic Site – 202 E. Walnut St., Corydon, IN, (812) 738-4890, www.state.in.us/dnr

The Corydon Capitol State Historic Site commemorates the history of Indiana's first state capital and the development of Indiana from the territorial period through statehood. This square, Federal-style limestone building was built between 1814 and 1816 and served as the state capitol until the seat of government was moved to Indianapolis on Jan. 10, 1825. The site includes Indiana's First State Office Building, built in 1817 and rented to the state for offices while Corydon was capital. Also on the site is Gov. Hendricks' Headquarters, built in 1817, where William Hendricks made his home while he was governor of Indiana. Open every day except Monday and some holidays.

2. Battle of Corydon Memorial Park – Old State Road 135, Corydon, IN, (812) 738-8236 or (812) 738-4890

Listed on the National Register of Historic Places, the Battle of Corydon Memorial Park commemorates the only Civil War Battle fought on Indiana soil. On July 9, 1863, in hopes that Union reinforcements would arrive and stop Gen. John Hunt Morgan's march through Southern Indiana, 450 members of the Harrison County Home Guard attempted to delay Morgan's 2,400 Confederate soldiers. Eighteen men lost their lives and more than 50 were wounded during Morgan's Raid in Harrison County. Open daylight hours.

It is believed to be the oldest standing structure in Corydon, having been built around 1800 on property owned by William Henry Harrison, ninth president of the United States and early territorial governor of Indiana. William Branham was licensed to keep a tavern here on April 4, 1809, thus the building's current name.
